ear Holly,

(Sorry this letter is typed out, if you want a hard copy – you can print this one!)

First, if I can thank you in multiple languages, I'll do it! The amount of trust for showing up makes me so happy and thankful! I can still remember, I was leaving home you're not yet up and responding to my chats – I was a little really thinking if you'll show up, but I just trusted you. When you replied, I was near the parking entrance – stop light lang kaya nakapag reply ako. And men, if you can see my smile! And from that point everything just went automatic – authentic, genuine, real basta 100% me just activated. I know my efforts are worth it. Ayun super thankful for just being there, di na problem yung wala kang dala – just seeing you and meeting you is enough for our first meet up! Yun lang naman Talaga need ko and wish ko na matanggap sa first meet up natin.

Second, I hope you really enjoyed! Super simple lang ng day na yon, but I hope it is meaningful, and you felt that I really want to be with you for that day! If I can get to re-plan and re-do that whole January 10 – I'll do it exactly how it happened repeatedly! From eating sa La Creperie which was a good experience, balikan natin sya to try out other foods from their menu ah! Short back story ulit hahaha basta lahat ng lines neto my back story na di mo Nakita. I really didn't went to the CR – nag bayad na Talaga ako non and sana di mo napansin hahahaha gusto ko kasi sasabihin ko sana sa'yo na “tara, labas ka na doon tapos sunod ako” – eh baka mamaya ma-off ka HAHHAHAHA so di ko na ginawa. To TimeZone adventures! Grabe, ang saya! Just us hitting high ticket winnings just feel so right. Ang saya lang to just play and enjoy without that feeling of I need to prove something to you. Promise, di ako nag paka-competitive noon. Everything was just as is. Up to the getting to know each other talks sa garden, while standing, seating in front of that large glass window – waiting for the rain to stop. I did not feel awkward at all, parang ang tagal na kitang kilala ganon yung feeling – and it was not in my plan to just seat around and talk to you actually, so sana okay ka lang na ganun lang ginawa natin for most of the time. And the continuation sa pag daan natin sa UP – I'm glad na napakita ko sayo yung loob ng UP, I have the same reaction way back when I first went there ng naka bike. We'll probably go back when you're available, I want you to experience walking under the tunnel of trees and sitting at the grass starring at the open sky. For the last part, the drive going back to Bulacan. Yes, that's one of my favourite part of the day! I get to share one of my favourite things to do – just driving. Thank you for allowing me to bring you back home. I hope you enjoyed the ride – paki rate nalang po ng 5 stars!

Third, hahahaha last na ito promise – haba na masyado. Sorry, sorry if may ubo ako huhu. Sorry talaga! Super lala ng sakit ko nung Monday pero I did my best to get well before our meet up date. Pero that's the best that I can do.

Before ending this letter, alam mo ba? Noong ideddeliver na saakin yang flowers, I called the lalamove rider kasi 10 minutes na lumipas, di pa rin sya umaalis sa pick up location. So I called him and sinabi nya, mag dodouble book dapat sya, and the I said wag na ako na bahala sakanya kasi need ko lang makuha yung flowers just before you arrive, di ka pa nag share ng live location mo noon kaya I was really rushing it eh super layo pa nung shop so I really pushed for it to deliver agad. Then pag dating ko, I added sa bayad ng booking and kuya was surprised – he said “hala sir, sobra naman yan” okay lang po “x” amount nalang then sabi ko, “de kuya okay na yan” then this part made it better, sabi nya kasi saakin na first day nya yon as a lalamove rider – first labas nya daw and it hit me, ako yung unang booking nya he was full of smiles after that. Wala lang na share ko lang kasi somehow everything just fell in place. Nothing was forced, no bad luck, no hindrances.

Ikaw ba? What was your favorite part of the day?

Yun lang! See you soon Holly Marie! And NICE TO FINALLY MEET YOU!

- Arjan

PS: When will be our next meet up?
